Good afternoon Mr. Mundy. My apologies for not responding sooner.

The last page of the contract documents Ms.
Bush provided has been updated and included in this email. As information, we don't keep track of specific information regarding the machines and locations. The supplier was contacted to retrieve the information provided. They do not track the type of facility the machines are located, however, I looked up each address to provide this additional information to you. Neither the supplier nor USPS keeps track of the current postmaster's name, contact information associated with each location or the phone number for these sites/machines.

Your June 15th email, while was addressed to Ms. Bush, the attachment refers to the response from Ms. Service. Only Ms.
Service can respond and provide further information, if available, to the documents she provided.

Hope you are well. I just wanted to send a quick follow up regarding our up FOIA request (Following-up
