FOIA Case 2018-FPRO-00751

Good morning Mr. Mundy. I think it would be best at this point to submit another FOIA request for the additional information you did not receive. I think it is past the 90 days where you had the opportunity to file an appeal. If you have questions or need assistance, feel free to give me a call. Thanks.

Good afternoon Mr. Mundy. My apologies for not responding sooner.
The last page of the contract documents Ms. Bush provided has been updated and included in this email. As information, we don't keep track of specific information regarding the machines and locations. The supplier was contacted to retrieve the information provided. They do not track the type of facility the machines are located, however, I looked up each address to provide this additional information to you. Neither the supplier nor USPS keeps track of the current postmaster's name, contact information associated with each location or the phone number for these sites/machines.

Your June 15th email, while was addressed to Ms. Bush, the attachment refers to the response from Ms. Service. Only Ms. Service can respond and provide further information, if available, to the documents she provided.

Good afternoon Ms. Bush,

Please see the attached letter from the Department of Rehabilitation regarding a clarifying question and a follow-up FOIA request (Follow-up Response to USPS FOIA Case 2018-FPRO-00751 6-15-2018.pdf). I have also included the May 14 USPS Response to our FOIA request as an enclosure (FOIA Case No. 2018-FPRO-00751). Additionally, Ms. Service responded to items 2 and 3 of our initial April 12 FOIA request, so I have included her on this email as well. Please don't hesitate to contact me should you have any questions.

Hope you have a great weekend.

Hello Mr. Mundy,

Per the attached letter dated April 17, 2018, your FOIA request was distributed to multiple organizations for response. I provided a response to 1, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 on behalf of the Vice President, Supply Management and the Vice President, Employee Resource Management will respond to items 2 and 3.

Let me know if I can be of further assistance.
